STUDENT LIFE

The U.S. held its own against great odds in the XX Olympiad. Swimmer Mark Spitz did the impossible! Never before had any athlete entered seven events and won seven Gold medals. A distinct world's record. Although not a Gold medal winner, golf-capped Dave Wottle won the hearts of the nation in the 1500 meter run. The U.S. cage team and its boxers showed up well.

The Year Of The Big Games

In the election Olympics of 1972, incumbent President Richard M. Nixon picked up all the marbles, winning over George McGovern in a record-setting landslide victory. Not so fortunate was incumbent Illinois governor Richard Ogilvie. He lost in a tight race to walkin' Dan Walker. In a straw vote at school, L-P students called these shots exactly the way the nation and state voted.

The world was deeply shocked and saddened by the senseless murder of Israeli athletes at the Olympic site in Munich by the Black September mob of Arabs. They were dubbed the "Barbaric Games" of the XX Olympiad.

Robert James Fischer played a game of strategy and nerves to defeat Russian grand champion Boris Spassky on the chess board, and bring the U.S. its first world chess title. The 29-year old Fischer put it this way: "Chess is like a war on the board".

As L-P Studied, They Reached For The Brass Ring

George McGovern picked up a Silver medal in the political games in his effort to unseat President Nixon.

Charlie Finley's Oakland Athletics, with flowing manes and mustaches and Gay Nineties uniforms, took the World Series in seven games against the highly-touted Cincinnati Reds. Catcher Gene Tenace was a standout for the A's with four series homers.

starring AL PACINO and KITTY WINN

This was the first year for Joe Marini as Cavalier head football coach. L-P students went to the movies to see "Needle Park" and "The Godfather" and took to "Jonathan Livingston Seagull" for their leisure reading. The driver ed classes were observing the new visual highway markers. And, the sign below greeted students on opening day, 1972.

GIVE A DAMN!

Our high school building was given new sparkle — sandblasting and tuck pointing — the first in 25 years. Students played more chess than ever, rode more bikes to school than ever and watched more TV than ever. Meanwhile, they worried about and worked for Ecology, too.

HOMECOMING 1972

The super-week that was: as a community watched, the high steppin' Columbus Day parade ... everyday dress-up days with clowns, kids and dandies roamin' the halls ... a chock-full-of-talent Variety show in a chock-full gym ... dramatic moment of decision when Queen Linda was handed her white bouquet ... an old-fashioned, heart-warming bonfire ... the best Pep rally ever just hours before a mighty Cavalier win over Kewanee ... card section/tunnel/Cavalette/confetti/band half-time extravaganza ... big dance dinner a million memories of our Happy Together week that was!

This was an active year for your Student Council. It performed its regular functions with efficiency, took on new challenges and developed closer communication between students and administrators. The year was busy. The Student Council hard working. The results gratifying.

L-P's Newest BIG Club

The Foreign Language club has F U N in four different languages: holiday parties, parade floats, foreign movies and travelogues. But the big event of the year is the International Banquet when buffet tables groan with hundreds of foreign delicacies and members eat their way "around the world." TOP RIGHT: Oglesby members enjoyed the evening. Lori Osce-pinski, Janie Mozina, Cindy Kozel. MIDDLE: Native salads and meat dishes, breads and desserts — in endless quantity and variety — awaited the club. Mignifuel. RIGHT: Officers of the 1972-73 Foreign Language club: Ann Weber, secretary; Cindy Heath, treasurer; Sue Swietek, president; Sue Bennett, vice president.

International Banquet

TOP There were holiday songs at the International Banquet in French, German, Spanish and Latin. MIDDLE There were honored guests, adult newcomers to the community from foreign lands, and AFS students from area high schools. LEFT And there were club sponsors and instructors from the Foreign Language department: Miss King, Mr. Hibben, Mrs. Ryan, Miss Cerri, Miss Decaroli, Mr. Strell and Mrs. Slier.

CAVALIERS achieve a 6-4 for Marini's debut season

Coach Joe Marini concluded his first season at the helm of the Cavaliers with a 6-4 record, achieved with wins over East Aurora, Ottawa, Kewanee, Streator, Mendota and Peoria Limestone. On a pattern of alternate weeks, L-P lost to St. Bede, Sterling, Dixon and Kankakee Eastridge. While, perhaps, not a great year, it was a good year and individual Cavaliers attracted the attention of the Chicago Daily-News, which named John Skibinski to its All State First Team and gave All-State Honorable Mention status to Mickey Carey, Joe O'Donnell and Jim Galassi. Junior quarterback Tim Voss ably filled the position of signal-caller left vacant through the practice-injury of Senior Steve Martuzzo for most of the season. And, 1972 saw a fresh look in Cavalier offense and a strong emphasis on defensive play — designed to please students and L-P football fans — and giving promise of finer things to come.

A Rocky Start a Roarin' Finish

The saga of the 1972 Inca football season has a "rags-to-riches" ring. The sophomore gridders bombed in their first four outings against East Aurora, crosstown rivals St. Bede, Ottawa and Sterling. Then, in a dramatic reversal, the Incas caught fire and scorched seven opponents in a row — blanking the Morris JV's, Kewanee and Mendota. Playing important roles in the comeback drive were Dennis Patterson (MVP), who exploded for 15 touchdowns and 6 extra-points, and defensive standouts, Bill Brown and Jeff Marynus, elected co-captains by their teammates at season's end

The 1972 AZTECS
Charge off the Field
After a Perfect Season

For the second straight season, the L-P Aztecs have rung-up a glossy 8-0 record, scoring 274 points to their opponents 74. Head coach Joe Vasquez and assistants Joe Skibinski and Jeff Novak worked long and hard with freshmen from Day-One, when (ABOVE) Mike Pinn, Bill Maney and Jim Briddick picked up their equipment. And it paid-off! Otis Dungan, Marty Reardon and Scott Piecha were named tri-captains by their teammates at season's end. And, it ended as another big year for the Aztecs.

Keith Harvey Most Valuable Player for AZTECS '72

Traditionally, freshman football is a recruit training program — individuals learning fundamentals, learning to play as a unit. Usually, there's little room for a single player to stand-out. Still, on 116 carries, Half Back Keith Harvey chewed up 1443 yards in eight games for 12.4 yards-per. Along the way, he scored nearly half his team's points, 134. Harvey (RIGHT) with Coach Vasquez was named MVP for the Aztec year.

Fuzzy: Smooth Runner

Mike Smith's last big eye set on bettering the marvelous record set on the Centennial Park course by Mike Smith in 1971. This past season was a giant stride in that direction.

Fuzzy beat Smith's record for the best time by a Junior in the 2.5 mile course with a time of 22:52. He beat 864 of his competitors and teammates while being overtaken by 80 runners.

Smith already holds the school record time as a Sophomore runner.

Smith ran the 2.5 mile course in the all-time record of 11:42 as a Senior. That's the big one for Fuzzy in 1973.

For sheer excitement, no Cavalier squad in years has been its equal. "cliff-hangers", "squeakers", "come-from-behind thrillers". And, the greater the rivalry — St. Bede, Ottawa, Mendota — the sweeter the win.

The Cavaliers were undefeated in NCIC competition, running a skein of conference wins to 26 over the past two seasons. Losses came early against Moline, East Moline and Glenbard West. Then they began to put it all together for an 18-4 record, building a 9-game win streak to wind-up regular season play. Wins over Morris and Ottawa in the Regional put the Cavaliers into the Sectional, where they stumbled 62-55 against a stronger Moline Maroon thrust

But it was a fine season — a fun-season of thrill-a-minute, run-and-gun basketball

Happy Together

The day we put the 73 in the yearbook. At left: A. J. The photograph

of the year's work.

Nancy (editor)
A. J. (Production Coordinator)

There seems to be a sameness about yearbook
acknowledgements, generally, "profuse thanks to those who made this yearbook possible."

new dimension of appreciation. Let us acknowledge the contributions of:

—those who may be seen on Pages 126-172;

—the student artists for original cover design and book illustrations, Peggy Jensen
and Tom West;

—the student photographers, Gary Kaprowicz and Pete Esche;

—News-Tribune photographers, Art Robinson, Dave Piccioli, Joe Marino, Jeff Green, for sharing their photos with us;

—the commercial photographers for class pictures and informal shots of organizations, Bob Johns Photography and M.
Pryde Studio;

—our contacts, Mike Gardner and Dorothy Bermeis of American Yearbook Co. and cover-maker, Jack Bundy of S. K. Smith Co.;

—those who did the little things that meant so much to make a yearbook better and yet, unfortunately, remain anonymous.

For all we're truly "Happy" that you worked so well "Together" on this yearbook. Many, many thanks!
